Weekly Bible Studies – Galatians

On Paul's first missionary journey he founded four Christian churches in the Roman Province of Galatia. When Paul ended his ministry there he was driven out of Antioch and had to flee from Iconium. Paul was then stoned in the town of Lystra. A few weeks later Paul received news of a major threat to his new Christian believers in Galatia. Immediately he sent a letter to be read to each of the four congregations. Paul's Letter to the Galatians was the most passionate and forceful epistle of all his 14 letters in the New Testament! Learn about Paul's joys, frustrations, sorrows and success during his early ministry at this new FPCR study.
